COUNT ONE

(Conspiracy To Distribute Narcotics With Intent To Support
An Organization Engaged In Terrorism)

The Grand Jury charges:

Background of the Conspiracy

The Taliban

1. The Taliban began as a radical fundamentalist religious movement that effectively ruled Afghanistan from the mid-1990s until the United States' military intervention in Afghanistan in late 2001. The Taliban imposed on Afghanistan a totalitarian form of government, based on a strict version of Islamic religious law known as Sha'ria.

2. Since being removed from power in 2001, the Taliban has operated as an insurgent organization, whose goal is to drive the United States and its allies from Afghanistan, and to re-impose Taliban rule on the country. To further its goals, the Taliban has used and uses terrorist tactics, including suicide bombings, improvised explosive devices, shootings and kidnappings, targeting, among others, American soldiers, Afghan political leaders, security contractors and civilians. The Taliban has publicly claimed credit for such attacks.

3. On July 3, 2002, the President of the United States named the Taliban to the list of Specially Designated Global Terrorist Groups.

4. Afghanistan is the world's largest heroin producing and trafficking country, accounting for approximately 90% of the opium poppy used to produce heroin. The Taliban's terrorist insurgency has been funded in part by Afghan drug traffickers who have provided financing to the Taliban in exchange for the protection of drug routes and production facilities, opium poppy fields, and members of the drug trafficking organizations.

The Defendant

5. Since at least in or about 1999, HAJI JUMA KHAN, a/k/a "Abdullah," a/k/a "Haji Juma Khan Mohammadhasni," the defendant, has led an international opium, morphine and heroin trafficking organization (the "Khan Organization"), based principally in the Helmand and Kandahar provinces of Afghanistan.

6. The Khan Organization has contracted to supply other drug traffickers with morphine base, which can be processed into heroin, in quantities as large as 40 tons. This is enough to supply the entire United States heroin market for more than two years. The Khan Organization also operates labs within Afghanistan that produce refined heroin, and the organization sells the heroin in quantities of as much as 100 kilograms and more.

7. At all times relevant to this Indictment, HAJI JUMA KHAN, a/k/a "Abdullah," a/k/a "Haji Juma Khan Mohammadhasni," the defendant, has been closely aligned with the Taliban. Since the United States' military intervention in Afghanistan, KHAN has supported the Taliban's efforts to forcibly remove the United States and its allies from Afghanistan. At all times relevant to this Indictment, KHAN and his organization have provided financial support to the Taliban, in the form of the proceeds of the Khan Organization's drug trafficking activities, in exchange for protection for the organization's drug trafficking operations.
